UNEARTH

THEIR

TRUE

COLOURS

Power your students with confidence and self-belief.
See what they can really do.

FEELING FRUSTRATED?

Do you have students that have the subject knowledge and study skills to achieve, but are blocked by poor emotional, behavioural and motivational skills?

It's tough out there. But learning through adventure in the wilderness can help you see a different side to your students and understand what they are truly capable of in the classroom.

In partnership with Whole Education, we're giving you the chance to improve the emotional, behavioural and motivational skills of your students. These are the superpowers they need to believe in themselves and smash their potential.

Your students. Our instructors.
Five days. One wild location.

This intervention will open the door to new possibilities – even if that door feels firmly shut.

WHY USE OUTWARD BOUND

We equip young people with a stronger sense of self-belief, able to cope better with stressful situations and interact more positively with others.

Our inspiring instructors will take your students on a personal journey out in the wild. Using experiential and transformational learning, this process will have a huge impact on your students' development and skills.

FINDING YOUR LOST MIDDLE STUDENTS

You've heard the saying: 'to get a different result, you have to try something different'. This intervention is for your Year 10 students who are underachieving in a specific area or subject, but you don't know why.

After a five-day Outward Bound intervention, your 'lost middle' students will return to school with the attitudes, skills and behaviours they need to make positive changes at school.

Give your students:

A FRESH START

A blank slate and space to breathe. Take your students out of their comfort zone. If they can overcome the forces of nature, they can overcome any stumbling blocks in school.

STRONGER RESILIENCE AND SELF-BELIEF

Our learning challenges are unique. These will help quickly develop the bank of skills your students need to cope – from exam pressures to everyday school life.

A GROWTH MINDSET

By creating unforgettable experiences, you will naturally develop your students' confidence, giving them a different, focused outlook and the motivation to achieve.

AFTER

OUTWARD BOUND

It doesn't end when they get back on the bus. In fact, it's just the beginning.

A week at Outward Bound acts as the catalyst for positive change. The environment that students return to back in school should enable them to continue to develop.

After the course, Whole Education will work with the school to support them to embed the learning in their students and help provide opportunities for continuous development.
