

WELCOME TO THE OUTWARD BOUND TRUST'S LOCH EIL CENTRE

WHY CHOOSE LOCH EIL?

The combination of world-class mountaineering venues with spectacular coastal scenery is what truly makes Loch Eil unique. Whilst the centre itself is overlooked by Ben Nevis, and surrounded by four 1,000m + peaks, you're also just a short distance from sandy shores from which to begin your journey on water. En route, you may also come across the local wildlife - from basking sharks to sea eagles and seals.

A former shooting lodge, the Loch Eil centre is steeped in history with its grounds having seen famous battles. The centre is also proud of its environmental credentials, having been awarded a Green Tourism Business Scheme Gold Award in recent years.

Loch Eil's dramatic scenery and challenging wilderness environments make for an ideal setting for your Outward Bound® programme.

ACCOMMODATION

The centre accommodates 120 in bunk rooms of 2-10, all of which are functional yet comfortable. Some rooms are en-suite and others have toilet and shower facilities immediately adjacent.

DINING

You'll be served freshly prepared food with plenty of variety on offer. Our catering team can also meet any dietary requirements, provided you let us know in advance.

OTHER FACILITIES

Group leaders enjoy separate accommodation in twin rooms, some with en-suite facilities. The centre also benefits from a fully equipped boathouse, shop, student lounge, telephones and vending machines.

GETTING TO THE CENTRE

Our venues are purposefully set in remote locations as the outdoor environment plays an essential role in every Outward Bound programme. We use the mountains, lakes and rivers on our doorstep to support our participants to build their confidence and achieve their goals. Using the outdoors in this way means that our programmes have real, transferable impact. Our clients tell us time and again that it's more than worth the journey.

For those driving from the South

Follow the A82 from Glasgow past Loch Lomond to Crianlarich. Then go over Rannoch Moor and through Glencoe. Then follow signs for Fort William, turning left onto Mallaig Road (A830) after the town and continue to the village of Corpach. Continue on this road for a further 3 miles and our Loch Eil Centre is situated on the right-hand side and is clearly sign-posted.

From Edinburgh

Coming from Edinburgh, follow the motorway to Stirling through Callander and onto Crianlarich. Then go over Rannoch Moor and through Glencoe. Then follow signs for Fort William, turning left onto Mallaig Road (A830) after the town and continue to the village of Corpach. Continue on this road for a further 3 miles and our Loch Eil Centre is situated on the right-hand side and is clearly sign-posted.

From the East Coast of Scotland

For those driving from the East coast, head North on the A9 to the Dalwhinnie exit. Follow signs for Fort William, turning right onto Mallaig Road (A830) just before the town and continue to the village of Corpach. Continue on this road for a further 3 miles and our Loch Eil Centre is situated on the right hand side and is clearly sign-posted.

By air

Glasgow and Inverness Airports are around 2.5hrs away from the centre.

By rail

Loch Eil has its own rail station on the opposite side of the road to the centre entrance with connections from Glasgow Queen Street.
